PROSPECTING ON NEW IRON RANGE

Drilling For Mineral Is Now Underway In Vicinity Of State Line

The F. I. Carpenter interests are still actively engaged in sinking test drills for the purpose of locating the ore range that lies under Vilas county, states the Vilas County News. The news further states that six bores have been sunk and their contents sealed for analysis. The first of these bores was sunk a half mile south of State Line, two more on the shores of Crystal Lake and the latest to be drilled is in the draw about a mile south of State Line along the Eagle River-State Line road. What these test drills are yielding is kept in strict secrecy and only a very few of those high up know the real value of the range. In the meantime it has been learned that the interests back of the prospecting operations are still acquiring the title to lands in the region of the ore find.

The developments of an ore field in the northern part of Vilas county give promise of an activity that will surpass the liveliness of the pioneer lumber days, declares the News. Nothing is known for sure but indications point to a rich find of ore in Vilas county. The heavy investments or corporations in real estate in the field, the eagerness with which new holdings are secured and the activity in prospecting are all taken by the optimists to be signs of the location of a large range of iron ore.

HURT BY SOO TRAIN

North Crandon Boy Is Struck By The Limited

A distressing accident happened last Friday evening at North Crandon resulting in probably fatal injuries to Joseph Middendorf and a severe shock and some bruises to his sister Helen.

The two young people were about to go out to the Middendorf farm and started along the Soo tracks. They had only gone a short distance when the evening passenger train came into view. Near them was the section house platform and they ran to get onto it, but misjudged the speed of the train and were both struck and hurled into the ditch. The boy had his shoulder broken and was badly crushed, so seriously that the attending surgeons doubt his recovery. The Middendorfs are among the prominent people of the town of North Crandon and the young people are popular with all classes. It is hoped that they may both speedily recover.—Forest Reputician.

BIG ATTRACTION COMING

"House Of A Thousand Candles" Here
Friday, October 11

If the producing manager knew what the theater-going public want there would be fewer failures and poor shows; but as he is invariably the last person who really knows what they want and when by some freak of fortune he does give them what they want, it is said, "he has produced a success." When the fact is taken into consideration that in a theatrical year there will be fewer than the real successes, the word success takes on a new meaning. "The House of a Thousand Candles," the play billed to appear at Opera House on October 11 can truly be called success, as it was first produced four seasons ago, at the Hackett Theater, New York, where it ran for a solid year, and has been before the public ever since. Everywhere it has met with success. The play is from Merle Nicholson's novel by the same name and done into play form by George Middleton. Mr. Primrose, the producer, has secured a complete scenic equipment and an excellent cast

17TH FAIR PASSES INTO HISTORY

Large Crowds Are Present On Last Day—Show Is a Great Success

Another Oneida county fair has passed into history and in all events it was one of the most successful in the existence of the Agricultural Association. Record breaking crowds were in attendance and the exhibits in all departments were on a par with those of former years and in many instances were better.

Thursday afternoon the attendance was equal to that of Wednesday and the attractions, including horse racing and the bi-plane flights, were very good. Barlow gave two more exciting exhibitions in his flying machine.

The county farmers manifested unusual interest in the fair this year and took pride in making exhibits. The showing of produce and the stock was such as to draw forth much favorable comment.

C. P. Crostv of the fair association, stated yesterday that the financial returns of the fair were satisfactory. He also requested that the New North thank all those who contributed to the support of the undertaking.

TROPHY IS HERE

The S. A. Cook trophy for marksmanship in the Wisconsin National Guard, won by Artificer J. H. Russell in 1909 and 1912, is on exhibition in Segerstrom's window. The trophy was first awarded in 1909 by S. A. Cook of Neenah. Artificer H. L. Russell of Co. L won it that year, but the trophy was not completed in time for delivery. In the two intervening years it has been held by Sergeant Bailey of Co. C, 2nd Reg. of Hudson and by Lieut. Schwandt of Co. F, 2nd Reg. of Oshkosh.

The trophy is of bronze mounted upon oak and weighs 100 pounds. The names of the various winners are placed in bronze upon the oak mount. Co. L and Artificer Russell are indeed to be congratulated on having won it twice in four years.

PASS BY NEW DEPOT

The special train bearing the prominent officials of the Soo line which went through Rhinelander last Sunday did not stop at the new passenger depot as it came in from the west but speeded on to the old depot. A north side resident stated that the reason the train failed to stop at the new station was because the officials knew it was no place for a depot and just couldn't allow themselves to halt there. It is doubtful if they even noticed the structure.

TESTIMONY STARTS IN KESTER CASE

Trial Of Minocqua Man For Manslaughter Begins This Forenoon

Malcolm R. Kester of Minocqua is now on trial in circuit court on the charge of manslaughter. Kester is accused of killing his adopted son, Everett Condon, at Minocqua over two months ago. A jury to try the case was secured this forenoon and the taking of testimony began at noon. About twenty witnesses will be examined and the case will probably occupy three days.

The jury in the case of James Keough, charged with indecent liberties, returned a verdict of guilty Tuesday. The prisoner has not yet been sentenced.

John Stepenski and John Sliger entered pleas of guilty before Judge Reid Tuesday to the charge of robbery and were sentenced to eighteen months each in state prison.

John Sohr who is charged with indecent liberties will be arraigned for trial Monday. Attorney L. P. Finch of Oshkosh will defend him. Owing to the escape of George Ledusire, chief witness for the state in the burglary case against Albert Donnerstag it was impossible to begin the proceedings today. The case has been held open.

Case against John A. Brace, larceny, continued for term.

John Armstrong, adultery, continued for term.

Joseph and Zigmund Gorski, assault; dismissed.

CIVIL CASES

Stella Smul vs. Atwood Company, settled.

E. B. Shepard vs. Joseph Hartley, settled.

Bundy Lumber Co. vs. M. H. Taggart, for trial.

State of Wisconsin vs. William Schlect, continued for term.

State of Wisconsin vs. T. H. Rosack, continued for term.

Sarah Titus vs. Town of Minocqua for trial.

A divorce was granted Mary A. Clother of this city from Byron K. Clother on the ground of desertion.

All those who appeared for final citizenship papers, thirty-four in number, were granted same by Judge Reid Monday afternoon. There was no appearance by the government.

The county farmers manifested unusual interest in the fair this year and took pride in making exhibits. The showing of produce and the stock was such as to draw forth much favorable comment.

C. P. Crostv of the fair association, stated yesterday that the financial returns of the fair were satisfactory. He also requested that the New North thank all those who contributed to the support of the undertaking.

CONVICT ESCAPES FROM HIS GUARD

George Ledusire Makes Successful Dash For Liberty
At Prentice

George Ledusire, who was being brought to this city from the state prison at Waupus to serve as chief witness for the prosecution in the case against Albert Donnerstag, charged with burglary, escaped from his guard at Prentice on the Soo line yesterday. A telegram informing the Rhinelander officers of the escape was received in this city today. Only scant particulars of Ledusire's escape can be learned here. It is reported that he broke away from the guard while on the dock platform at Prentice and disappeared into the nearby woods. Descriptions of the fugitive have been sent to every sheriff and police official in northern Wisconsin.

Ledusire pleaded guilty to robbery in this city several months ago and was sentenced to a prison term. He is known to have had knowledge of the crime with which Albert Donnerstag is charged and was to have been the main witness against him.

Miss Agnes Rosemark returned Tuesday from Chicago. She will open her dressmaking parlors Monday.

FINALLY NABS MAN

Sheriff Crofoot Arrests Eli La Ton After A Long Search

On a warrant charging him with the theft of $53 from Chas Poquette, a Woodruff livery man, last July, Eli La Ton was arrested by Sheriff Crofoot at Park Falls Saturday. La Ton was arraigned before Judge Ames at Minocqua and pleaded guilty. The court ordered him to return the amount taken to Mr. Poquette and suspended sentence pending his future good behavior.

Sheriff Crofoot had diligently searched for La Ton since the 19th of last July and traced him to Mississippi. Last week La Ton returned to Rhinelander but left immediately for Park Falls to where he was followed and caught by Mr. Crofoot.

Wm. Schlecht of Minocqua and member of the county board from that town left some corn and a turnip at the office of the County Representative. The corn is fully ten feet tall and the turnip will weigh about ten pounds. These samples came from a crop that was sown on new land just burned over. Both corn and turnips were sown broadcast. The corn is well eared. Think of corn standing like wheat. This land is right in the midst of the state forestry reserve where the state forestry cruisers say there is no agricultural land. These cruisers are lumber jacks and not farmers.

F. R. Tripp certainly has a wonderful crop of corn. With any kind of ordinary season he would surely have had a record breaker for any country under the sun. A few warm days will mature it.

This fall why not try this way of selecting some of next year's seed potatoes? Dig some of the crop by hand. Save all the potatoes from hills that turn out eight or ten nicely formed and even sized potatoes. Plant this seed in a place by itself next summer. Don't you think that you ought to get a better yield from seed selected from such hills than seed selected at random from the bin? Seed selected from the bin may come from hills that have one or two decent potatoes and the rest either inordinately large or very small. Hills giving about eight or ten even sized potatoes ought to reproduce their kind.

Mr. Tubbs was a plain, big hearted, honest man whose friends were innumerable. He was a woodsmen of the old times, few of whom survive today. He served three years as a member of Co. L, 10th Michigan Cavalry in the struggle between the north and south. He was in many notable battles and won honor as a soldier.

Mr. Tubbs was survived by no relatives in this city but leaves two sisters and a brother Michigan.

The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon from the Congregational church and was largely attended. Rev. Grant Clark officiated at the services.

SNOW IN SEPTEMBER

A light snow fell in this city today and the atmosphere is about as chilly as that of the frigid zone. Overcoats and furs feel very comfortable, thank you, and wood piles and coal bins are the object of vigorous onslaughts. This is the earliest snow has invested this part of the state in many years. This first real touch of winter comes as a reminder of what one can expect within a few short weeks to come.

PERKINS STOPS NIEDNER

Billy Perkins, the Rhinelander middleweight, stopped Fred Niedner in the third round of their scheduled ten-round contest at Harwick's gymnasium last night. A shower of rights and lefts to the head line drove Niedner through the ropes and onto the floor. When he was assisted back into the ring, after about twenty seconds of maneuvering, the referee began to count. At nine, Niedner slowly stood up and made a semblance of defending himself, but after Perkins ripped in a few more punches Niedner dropped to his knees where

ONEIDA FARMERS HAVE GOOD CROPS

County Representative Finds
Condition Satisfactory
In County

The Farmers' Course for the year will probably come off in the week extending from March 5 to 7, 1913. Every farmer should look forward to this course. It was a great course last March.

Charles Gross of Crescent township is cutting a third crop of alfalfa and it is over knee high. Charley is very cheerful. He sowed this alfalfa a year ago. Will the fellow who poohooed alfalfa growing in this county please take notice?

Wm. Schlecht of Minocqua and member of the county board from that town left some corn and a turnip at the office of the County Representative. The corn is fully ten feet tall and the turnip will weigh about ten pounds. These samples came from a crop that was sown on new land just burned over. Both corn and turnips were sown broadcast. Seed selected from the bin may come from hills that have one or two decent potatoes and the rest either inordinately large or very small. Hills giving about eight or ten even sized potatoes ought to reproduce their kind.

While over at the Norway, Michigan, fair week before last the County Representative overheard a prominent horticulturalist from lower Michigan say that the little round potatoes brought 15c a pound on the Chicago market. They are used in the high class restaurants as garnishes for some fancy dishes and are called French imported (?) potatoes.

Would it not be a good plan for the potato men of Oneida county to look this matter up. Possibly we can find a good market for some of our little French imported (?) potatoes. Farm boys might be able to make good money picking up these little potatoes.

One would have to go a good ways to see a finer truck exhibit than was shown by the farmers at the county fair. That was a wonderful potato exhibit. In most cases the potatoes were well selected, were of even size and looked fine in quality. It would seem to be good policy next year for Oneida county to make a potato exhibit at the State Fair in which say fifty farmers would have samples. That would impress itself on the minds of people visiting the fair.

Everybody would tell about that wonderful potato exhibit from Oneida county. It would be a great advertisement.

It is impossible to mention all of the good work done by farmers in exhibiting live stock and produce at the fair. But space will be given to mention some few and it will be no injustice to the other exhibitors.

Barlow Proves Himself To Be A Skillful Aviator

Floyd Barlow, the Curtiss aviator, who gave four successful flights in his bi-plane at the county fair last week departed Tuesday for Los Angeles, Cal., his home, where he will spend the winter. His machine was shipped to the factory of the Curtiss company.

Mr. Barlow's demonstrations of aerial navigation in this city were very interesting and quite satisfactory to the thousands of people who witnessed them. Barlow has made flights in many of the leading cities of the United States and has a far reaching reputation as an able and fearless aviator. On Thursday he reached an altitude of 4,000 feet according to his own statement.

BIG RING BATTLE TOMORROW NIGHT

Perkins and Godfrey Are Prepared For the Sound of The Gong

In Duluth a few evenings ago Art Godfrey of Minneapolis, who is to clash with Billy Perkins in a ten round glove contest in this city, Friday night, put away Kid Flanery in one of the test ring exhibitions that has ever been witnessed in that city. Flanery hit Godfrey repeatedly, but his blows failed to make much of an impression on the sturdy youth from the flour city. Godfrey showed decided ability to assimilate punishment. Godfrey is on the trail of Eddie McGoorty for the middleweight championship of America.

Everything is now in readiness for the Godfrey-Perkins bout at the Grand Opera House tomorrow night. Perkins' two weeks of training at Harwick's gymnasium in Milwaukee has put him in better condition than he has ever been before during his ring career. Godfrey is also in good trim as his former tilt with Perkins is still fresh in his mind and he knows that he is going against a J. mat.

As a preliminary before the big act Nap Bruly of Two Rivers will take on Kid McGuire of this city for six rounds. This bids fair to be an interesting skirmish. Al King, the local boxer, has announced that he will meet all comers. It is expected that some good man will be present ready to accommodate him. All bouts will be referred by Paddy Lanzer, Hurley's popular sporting man. General admission $1.00. Ringside $1.50.

LOSE FIRST GAME

Rhinelander Highs Are Defeated at Tomahawk, Saturday

The Rhinelander High school football team opened its season at Tomahawk, Saturday, when it played the Tomahawk Highs. 16 to 0 was the score in favor of the Hatchet City boys. Eighteen men composed the Rhinelander squad. The defeat of the team was due to the bad weather which prevented practice work. The line-up was very weak and during the progress of the game two local players were hurt. A fair sized crowd of rooters from this city attended the game.

Rhinelander plays Wausau High school team at Wausau next Saturday afternoon. The line-up has been strengthened since the Tomahawk contest and a favorable showing is expected.

ROOSEVELT AS ENGINEER

Bull Moose Leader Pulled Throttle Of Engine In Montana

In a letter to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Martin of this city, Attorney Bert Martin of New York City, who is accompanying Colonel Roosevelt on his campaign tour, tells of an instance while in Montana where "Teddy" pulled the throttle of the locomotive for his special train. Mr. Martin's letter reads as follows:

Going out of Helena this morning I noticed that there was a big engine going to push the train from behind and I crawled up and had a talk with the engineer, telling him that I used to be a fireman and he asked me to ride a ways. After we got under way, Colonel Roosevelt came out on the platform and sat down. I noticed him and asked the engineer if he would like to have Teddy run the engine. He said yes so while the train was running along at 50 miles an hour I crawled fine and got to the platform and told Colonel. He followed me back to along the running board on the engine and ran it for many miles while I fired it.

The state democratic platform on water-power is so satisfactory to the water power interests that B. R. Goggins, water power lobbyist in the last legislature, heartily endorses it. Where do the people come in?

Over a year ago this city purchased two expensive steam pumps and all this time but one has been in use. Why spend large amounts of money and then not use the property purchased or even house it from the weather?

Potato buyers who are also studying the best conditions for their production declare that Oneida county is as well adapted to the raising of spuds as any land in Wisconsin. This is why Starks, the potato king, has purchased thousands of acres of land in this county the past year. We venture there will be no cheap land in this county after a few years.

"BOB" OPENS CAMPAIGN

The keynote of the Wisconsin campaign will be sounded tomorrow by Senator LaFollette. Branding the Democratic ticket and platform in Wisconsin as an "alliance between anti-Ryan, anti-Wilson, tory Democrats and reactionary 'Stalwart' Republicans," Senator LaFollette in this week's issue of LaFollette's Weekly Magazine asks for the support of Wisconsin citizens for the Republican state ticket. There is a pointed paragraph in which the Senator shows the achievements in Wisconsin during incumbency of Governor McGovern.

RAISE VALUATION

Alderman J. M. Baker, who acted on the city board of review, states to hood and womanhood, especially in a New North representative that city valuations were generally raised but that the aim was to see that the small home owner did not get the worst of it. He says the absence of about two hundred fifty thousand dollars worth of lumber necessarily makes a general raise in taxes but much of this has been put on the better homes and land values in the business part of the city. Assessor Patterson says it has always been the custom to give low appraisals to industrial concerns. The sooner we make equitable valuations on all properties the quicker we will get to social justice.

THEY ARE FOR IKEY

"Our esteemed contemporary is still politically on the fence. It should not require much thought for a republican to know whom to support" — Rhinelander News.

It seems to be little trouble for the News to know where to stand whom it must support. Karel the so-called democratic candidate for governor, but, in reality, the bi-partisan tool of the water power gang and the special interests. Why should this little paper not support Karel? It was organized to fool the people with the cry of "trade at home" but in reality to fill the pockets of the few at the expense of the people.

You saw that in the electric light controversy and now you see it again in the Rhinelander Power Co.'s contention for higher rates for pumping city water.

BENEFITS OF PAY BILL

If the government pay bill for officers and men of the National Guard becomes a law it will result in the following benefits:

Enabling officers of moderate means to devote the necessary time to military duties and studies.

Securing the services of well educated young men for officers.

Retaining in the service capable officers, many of whom might otherwise be compelled to resign.

Requiring every member of the National Guard to establish his fitness for military service.

Securing more regular attendance of enlisted men at drills.

Encouraging enlistments, particularly of the better class of men.

Improving discipline.

DEMOCRATIC PRINCIPLES

If you doubt that the democratic party of this state has turned from principle for the office read their platforms for the last eight years and see how they have now absolutely repudiated their past record in the state platform of Sept. 17, 1912.

State Democratic platform adopted at Oshkosh September, 1904—The income tax. We favor an amendment to section 1 of article 8 of the state constitution relating to taxation and providing for a graduated income tax and we judge each and all of the Democrats elected to the next legislature to support such amendment as provided by joint resolution No 11 of the legislature of 1903.

Democratic State platform, adopted 1910—* * * We favor the immediate enactment of a graduated income tax law pursuant to the amendment of the constitution of Wisconsin as ratified by the people of this state at the last election.

Platform of Wisconsin Democrats in convention July, 1912—We reaffirm our belief in the principles of a graduated income tax as "eminently just and equitable. We criticize the present law as imperfect and inequitable in many respects. We therefore pledge ourselves to amend the present law at the 1913 session of our legislature so as to remove the obnoxious features, and to make its provisions simple and equitable, and to submit the law as so amended to the people of our state for their approval or rejection at the first election after its amendment."

Democratic State platform, adopted at Madison Sept. 17, 1912—We are opposed to the present state income tax foisted upon the people of the state by the Republican party at the last session of the legislature. * * * We promise its immediate repeal.

MOTHER'S PENSION' BILL

By Judge Ben J. Lindsey

I heartily favor the mothers' pension act of the Wisconsin republican platform. The mother who is engaged in rearing a family is rendering just as valuable service to the state as is the soldier engaged in fighting the battles of the state. While engaged in active service the soldier is paid compensated. In the old age of the soldier, after the battles are fought the work is done, or the victory is won, he is pensioned. It may be equally wise to pension those women who have served the state through rearing children to manhood and womanhood, especially in their old age, if they are without other support. But I contend that in the never-ceasing battle of the very poor, where women are struggling to raise children and they are without sufficient means of support except their own labor, that would take them away from their children it is the positive duty of the state to pay such a mother to stay at home and take care of her children and to pay her a sufficient sum to provide herself and her children with the ordinary comforts of life.

STATE HEARS CHILDREN'S CRY

Heretofore the government has concerned itself almost entirely with the rights of property. It has concerned itself very little in the direct protection of human beings. The cry of the children has at last attracted the attention of the state, not so much because it would protect the women and the children, but because it would save itself.

Only the law of self-preservation will force the state against the opposition of the mere makers of money to become the over-parent of all its people.

MUST STAND TOGETHER

In the coming state campaign Progressive Republicanism will present a united front.

Senator LaFollette will take the stump and urge the re-election of Governor McGovern and of all Progressive Republican candidates for state, congressional and legislative offices.

The Senator is of the opinion that the election of Judge J. C. Karel, the Democratic candidate, would be a menace to all the Progressive legislation which has been enacted in Wisconsin since the old Republican regime was overturned. To Governor McGovern he will give the same aid that he will give to any other Republicans candidates.

It is a time when all true progressives must stand together for principle and cast aside personal ties. The democrats of this state are offering the reactionaries every inducement to get their votes and if that party wins they will be bound hand and foot for special privilege. Read their platform and you will agree with us.

PLATFORM TRULY PROGRESSIVE

A platform, the ringing progressive phrases of which take another long step forward in the development of the Wisconsin idea and set the beacon light of progressivism for the other states of the country to follow, was adopted by the republicans at the state convention last week.

It leads with a stirring endorsement of Senator LaFollette and praise for the last legislature which passed every plank of the most notable platform which up to that time had been adopted by a state party in this country. This lead is followed with a clear-cut continuation of all of these articles and the introduction of many progressive ideas.

The two major features of the platform are the enunciation of plans for the complete regeneration of the rural schools of Wisconsin and the strong endorsement of the income tax law with the promise that when the latter is fully worked out, the personal property tax law will be repealed.

HUMANITARIAN ALIEN

The humanitarian side of the progressive movement is also given the fullest attention. A minimum wage scale for working women is one of the most important planks. A pledge is made to fully investigate industrial diseases and plan compensation for victims. Pensions for dependent mothers with children and the latest ideas in prison legislation find expression. A far-reaching plank which will provide protection to innocent investors from "blue sky" stock promotion is provided. The waterpower problem is handled in conformity with the recent decision of the Supreme court, the party being pledged to secure legislation to protect the life and property when damage results from improperly constructed dams.

New parties are to be given an easier opportunity to secure places on the state ballot. The passing of the home rule, initiative and referendum and recall amendments to the constitution is promised.

FOR RURAL SCHOOLS

The report of the state board of public affairs experts on the alternatives and cure for the rural school situation in this state made the basis of the plank on that subject. The platform promises a complete regeneration of the schools, with improved supervision, buildings, and instructors and the development of the schools as recreation and social centers.

The income tax policies of the administration are reaffirmed in re-mistaken terms, but the party is pledged to protect private interests from exposure and a promise to simplify the law is made.

THE REPUBLICAN PLATFORM, IN BRIEF

The Republican platform provides the following planks:

1—Better conditions in rural schools includes better buildings, supervision, equipment and teaching, with extension of agricultural teaching and the use of the schools as social centers.

2—Support of the income tax principle, with simplifications as they may be found necessary, with the repeal of the personal property tax as soon as the income tax brings in a large enough revenue.

3—Immediate minimum wage standards for women and an investigation of occupational diseases with the end of ultimate payment of compensation for such diseases.

4—Pensions for worthy and dependent mothers.

5—Abolition of prison contract labor, the substitution of prison production for state and municipal consumption and application of prisoners' earnings to the support of their families.

6—Extension of law to protect investors against the purchase of fraudulent and worthless stock.

7—Immediate passage of a water-power bill to conserve and develop these powers for all of the people.

8—Legislation to prevent unfair trade for the purpose of destroying a competitor.

9—An amendment to the election laws to allow admission of a new party without unreasonable restrictions.

10—Home rule for cities.

11—Initiative, referendum and recall.

12—Endorsement of the LaFollette national platform.

13—Endorsement of the LaFollette resolution for an easier way of amending the constitution.

14—Endorsement of a rational bill for appeal to the Supreme court of cases where state courts have declared state laws unconstitutional.

THIS IS A PROBLEM

Judge John C. Karel, democratic candidate for governor, says that he is for Woodrow Wilson for president.

Woodrow Wilson, democratic candidate for president, has declared for the state graduated income tax.

Gov. Marshall, democratic candidate for vice-president, has decided for the state graduated income tax.

Judge Karel now has written into the democratic state platform a plank

for the repeal of the Wisconsin income tax law.

What are you progressive democrats going to do about it?

Owntime Dinner Reproduced.

A reproduction of a ninth-century dinner has been served at a recent Vienna cookery exhibition. The menu consisted of pike broiled in oil and then pressed into a paste; a paste made of venison with millet; and a roast peacock containing a whole chicken, the chicken in turn stuffed with a pigeon, and the pigeon again stuited with roasted eggs.

May 1 a Holiday.

A Milwaukee school teacher asked her class of small boys and girls to prepare lists of all the legal holidays that they knew of, and to put them in the order of their importance. Christmas and Fourth of July stood about equal in the number of first places accorded them, and upon but one paper in the lot appeared "Moving day, May 1," as the most important of American legal holidays.

The One Thing That Counts.

Some persons, I know, estimate happiness by fine houses, gardens and parks—others by pictures, horses, money and various things wholly remote from their own speeches; but when I wish to ascertain the real felicity of any rational man, I always inquire whom he has to love. If I find he has nobody, or does not love those he has—in the midst of all his profusion of finery and grandeur, I pronounce him a being deep in adversity.—From Elizabeth Inchbald's "Nature and Art."

Saw Nothing of Value in Pearls.

When the army of Galerius sacked the camp of the routed Persians a bag of shining leather, filled with pearls fell into the hands of a private soldier, but the latter, while carefully preserving the bag, threw away its contents under the impression that anything that could not be used for useful purposes had no other value.

Lightning and Concrete.

The effect of lightning on concrete, which has long been a matter of dispute, has been observed by a leading member of the American Society of Civil Engineers, who has a reinforced concrete water tank on his country estate. This was struck by lightning, which caused no injury, but changed the texture of the concrete in places from granular to vitreous. The tank was heavily reinforced.

HOW DUTCH FARMERS LIVE

Cattle Invariably Are Housed Under the Same Roof as the Family.

The typical Dutch farmhouse is square, one-story, with a pyramid-shaped roof. The space between the apex of the roof and the ceiling of the dwelling part is generally used as a storehouse for winter food for the cattle. The living room door opens into the stable, for the cattle are invariably housed under the same roof as the family. The homes vary little in their furnishings. One always sees bright strips of carpet, a highly polished "center table," where the family Bible is displayed, and a glass dresser, with its shelves filled with rare old brass and Delft ware. The most curious thing about the houses is the sleeping quarters—unique and certainly unheathy from the modern viewpoint, which requires plenty of fresh air in the bedrooms.

The cheesemaker's family sleeps in beds built in cupboard-like recesses in the wall and as far from the window as possible. There is a door similar to that of a cupboard, and this is kept closed during the day, in order that the bed may be hidden from view. The study condition of this walled-in bedroom can be readily imagined. The linen is always snowy white, and the whole make-up presents an attractive appearance, even to the decorated strap suspended from the ceiling and used to assist the occupant of the couch to arise. The visitor is always welcome at the cheese farms, but the visit must be made early in the morning if the cheesemaking is to be seen.—Leslie's.

WAS AFRAID OF EXCITEMENT

Reasons Advanced by Man Who Wanted to Get Off Bond of Mail Contractor.

The departments in Washington receive some queer letters. Below is given verbatim a letter received last November by the bureau that has charge of the bonds of mail contractors, from a man who wished to get off a bond. It is unique. The last sentence contains a valuable suggestion to others who dislike to receive disagreeable news, especially on business matters. The letter tells how he signed the bond merely to oblige a friend and then continues with this personal history:

"I risk my life to go to the lecture this fall I have done all I can for you office men at the White house. So I Wood like if you office men Wood get me out of trouble so I cod Rest I halnt Work one Day for 15 years on count of Palpitation of the Heart. Some times I can't bare the clock Strike So you no My heart is weak you office men Do all you can to get Me out of trouble. If they had told me the letter Was 4 year I Never Wood sind the bond I thought it Was 1 year So I Was told when you Rite Don't Rite any thing that will excite Mee it Will Fly to My Heart."—Kansas City Star.

Don't Be a Dowdy.

The best-dressed woman is not necessarily the one who spends the most money. Time, thought, and taste tell to the advantage of dress. Those who persist in speaking of carelessness in dress as if it were a merit are greatly mistaken. To be pleasing, though not elaborately dressed, and as attractive as she may be, is every woman's duty, and the dress that suits the occasion confers dignity upon the wearer.

"Why do you wear a pretty bow in your hair and take so much pains to have becoming tie?" some one asked the teacher of a large class in the public school. "I wear my ribbons and put on my bows and make myself attractive because I have to influence for good fifty boys every day," was the reply. The teacher was right. Her boys believed in her much more than they would had she been a dowdy.—Christian Herald.

Charity Box.

Take an old trunk or large box and call it your charity box. Into it put all the articles with which you have finished—pictures, magazines, books to read and old ones for scrap books, pretty cards, clothing and all sorts of wearing apparel, pieces of silk, cloth and lace for dolls' clothing, envelopes with foreign stamps, all the little things you have finished with. Every once in a while go through it and dispose of its articles to orphan asylums, hospitals, etc. Then when you are called on for contributions to rummage sales all you have to do is to go to the box and not have to "rummage" around.

Resentful Recollections.

"Did they make you recite 'Little Drops of Water' when you were a child?" "Yes," replied Colonel Stillwell. "And it didn't stop there. When I grew up they tried to insist on my adopting them as a beverage."

Fathers Doctor's Advice and Casts the Lure That Tempts Fleet Ambition.

"The boy is all right," said the doctor, "but you want to talk to him and rouse his ambition. Promise him that you will take him somewhere when he recovers sufficiently to go out—to a vaudeville show, for instance; talk to him about playing with the boys; there are lots of ways in which you can interest him."

Then the doctor addressed the boy, who was just recovering from a fever, saying:

"Come, Tommy, cheer up, my boy; wouldn't you like to go and play with your schoolmates?"

A faint smile stole over the boy's face, but that was all.

"Stop, sir," said the father; "I'll arouse him. See here, Tommy," he asked, addressing the boy, "wouldn't you like to go out and throw a stone through Mother Bibb's candy shop window?"

The boy immediately sat up in bed and asked for his clothes.

"I thought that 'd rouse the boy," said the father, with a proud smile. "He's all right, doctor."—Kansas City Journal.

PLEASED WITH HIS PROGRESS

Pursuit of the Affections of the Widow Shy Was Not Exactly Smooth, However.

"Uck!—yassah! Bleeged to you for de 'terrification sabb' and I's pubgressin' mighty fine in muh love afar' wid de Widder Shy. At de fust, de lady took and put chase to me wid a shotgun when I mentioned muh attitude to 'o'ds her. Bless goodness!—twuzen't loaded, but she done rammed me wit it as I sailed over de fence and like to uh-broke de spine ob muh back. De time she flung hot watah on me she sho' scalded me good and plenty; but I got' well after a while, dess as de faithful allies done."

"Well, den, yister'd'y, whilst I was uh-makin' muh bow to her, she slapped me flat—done a fine job, too, sabb; and muh head rings plumb fit. Wouldn't War on the Ministry.

There are some drawbacks to the teaching of language by sound, especially where the younger school element is being instructed by that system. In one of the first grade classes of the Greenwood school lately the teacher was endeavoring to drill the Band of Mercy slogan into the young brains. One clause of the "resolve" is an injunction to be "kind to all harmless living creatures." Somehow the pronunciation of this phrase did not quite suit and the teacher asked for a repetition, and still there was something queer about the way it was repeated. Finally she requested one member of the class to say it to himself, and while she could not yet quite see what was the matter it did not sound right.

"Now, Tommy, say it over again slowly. 'I resolve to be kind to all harmless living creatures,'" said the teacher, bound to get the straight of the matter.

Tommy repeated slowly, and while there seemed to be nothing exactly wrong with the rest of the sentence, the final word sounded off color.

"Is that 'creatures' you are saying there, Tommy?" asked the puzzled teacher. "Say it all again."

With the sweetest resignation in the world the boy repeated, "I resolve to be kind to all harmless living preachers."—Kansas City Journal.

Water for Nervousness.

A trained nurse says: "If people would only drink more water they would not be so nervous." Nearly every doctor will recommend a woman who is suffering from nervous prostration or nervous exhaustion to drink lots of water between meals, but many women who do not come under a doctor's care would look better and feel better if they would drink at least a quart of water in the course of the day. Water seems to be a nerve food like good butter. It has a distinctly soothing effect when sipped gradually, as one can test for herself. Water drunk slowly and gradually has somewhat the same quality as deep breathing.

"He's gone already," said the manager. "I wanted to see him, too. He's just the man for the place."

The reporter stopped him. "Do you mean to say you don't know who he was?" he cried. "He was Lorenzo, the great composer."

"I was thinking some of hiring him at 15 per," he said. The next minute he added thoughtfully: "What do you suppose made him do it? He must have had reason."

Hurrying homeward was the little man in peasant's costume.

"Ah! they understood!" he mused. "I knew they could. They loved it for itself alone, not because I, the great Lorenzo, played it. No other but the Italian could have appreciated it as they did. To the English—bah—it would have had to be explained in cold words so that they might follow. What care I if I get no gold beyond the beggarly first prize, perhaps? Appreciation is more than applause or money to a man who loves his art as I love it."

Chambermaid Music.

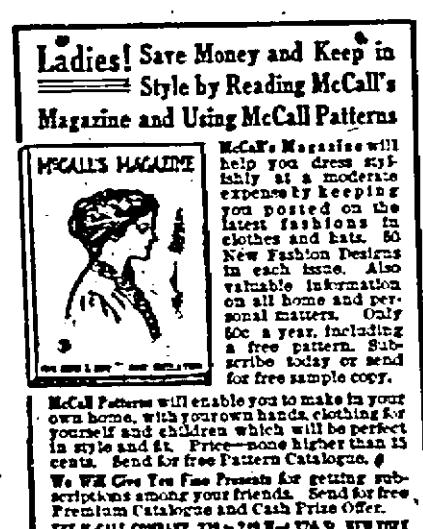

"Why do you object to hotel orchestras?"

"Because," replied the musician, "their programs usually sound as if they had been selected to please the bell boys and chambermaids."—Washington Star.

CHAMPION FISH EATER

E. R. Moore Devours Five Pound Bass With Trimmings

To E. R. Moore of this city belongs the honor for being the champion fish consumer of Oneida county if not northern Wisconsin. At a local restaurant one evening recently Mr. Moore devoured a five pound black bass together with all the trimmings which comprised the menu. After doing away with this substantial spread it is stated by those at the festive board that Mr. Moore actually complained of being hungry. If there is anything in the food line that he likes better than fish it is more fish.

The specimen of the finny tribe which Mr. Moore masticated with such apparent gusto and ease was captured by Alex Taylor, proprietor of the billiard hall at 107 Stevens street. It was one of the largest black bass caught in Oneida county waters this year. Mr. Taylor is an ardent disciple of the famous Walton and has probably caught more fish than any other man in Rhinelander since the present season opened.

ITALIANS ENTICE CHILD AWAY

The five year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ross, residents of Antigo, was taken on the north bound Northwestern passenger train at Antigo by a number of Italians Tuesday afternoon and carried by them as far as Ironwood. At this city the child was taken away from the foreigners by the conductor of the train and returned to Antigo or the night limited. What the object of the Italians was in enticing the little boy on the train is a mystery. They evidently did not desire to keep him as they made no remonstrance when the conductor took him from them.

LAUREL BAND ENTERTAINS

At the city park Sunday afternoon the Laurel band under the direction of Prof. Rieck, gave a very pleasing program rendering several of the latest selections. It is to be regretted that the coolness of the weather had a tendency to prevent many from attending the concert.

The Laurel band is advancing wonderfully under Prof. Rieck's guidance. The membership is composed of young men who take interest in their work and are developing into good musicians. Prof. Rieck is to be congratulated on the success which is attending his efforts.

MERRILL EDITORS PRAISE OUR CITY

Herald Publishers Have Good Words For Rhinelander And Its People

The editors of the Merrill Daily Herald visited Rhinelander and the Oneida county fair last Thursday and upon their return home wrote up a two column article on this city, the fair and Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Shepard by whom they were entertained while here. Portions of the write up are as follows:

One summer day about thirty years ago the writer and Jack Gumaer, an old time lumberman, sat on a log near the river at Pelican rapids and resolved that Rhinelander could be no town just a stopping off place for a few years until the pine timber north of there should be all cut. The reason for this sage resolution, was the fact that the right-of-way for the Northwestern railroad was just being cut into what is now Rhinelander, but then called Pelican. Naturally the idea of whether there would spring up a town there or not, was discussed by the lumberjacks as they passed on up the river with their loaded canoes. The two gentlemen named were waiting for the rest of the canoes to come up, and the crew to begin portaging around the big falls at that place when the above resolution was unanimously passed by the meeting. But how foolish man is when he endeavors to judge of the future. So were we.

Where thirty years ago was a wilderness, with a trading post for Indians and stopping place for the few lumbermen who were then operating north of Rhinelander, is to day a beautiful and well built city, of contented and happy people, with blocks of substantial business houses, large manufacturing institutions, employing hundreds of working men and women. An air of stability and prosperity prevades Rhinelander.

Rhinelander is not the largest city in the Wisconsin valley, although it is the youngest. It has better streets than any of its sister cities in the valley.

The exhibit of agricultural products at the Oneida county fair was remarkably fine. Every agricultural product produced from the soil anywhere was shown. Corn, alfalfa, grains of all kinds, vegetables of all kinds, were on exhibition and the exhibits were splendid, though not large but showing conclusively what can be done by the husbandman with Oneida county soil as foundation to work from.

While at Rhinelander The Herald editors had the extremely good fortune to be taken in by Mr. and Mrs. Eugene S. Shepard and royally entertained at their palatial and beautifully located home until this morning. Mr. and Mrs. Shepard know how to take care of and feast editors—we speak by the card. We had everything that the most exacting could wish.

Clinton Hanson leaves the end of the week for Madison to enter the University of Wisconsin.

Mrs. Morris McRae left Tuesday morning for Minneapolis for a two weeks visit with her brother, Chester Piggy and his family.

IT'S YOUR KIDNEYS

Don't Mistake the Cause of Your Troubles

Many people never suspect their kidneys. If suffering from a lame, weak or aching back they think that it is only a muscular weakness; when urinary trouble sets in they think it will soon correct itself. And so it is with all the other symptoms of kidney disorders. That is just where the danger lies. You must cure these troubles or they may lead to dropsy or Bright's disease. The best endorsed remedy for weak diseased kidneys is Doan's Kidney Pills. Residents of this vicinity are constantly testifying.

Mrs. A. Denoyer, Box No. 82, Hackley, Wis., says: "A member of my family was troubled by weak kidneys for ten years. He was sometimes laid up for days and could not find a remedy that would give him relief. Finally I had the good fortune to learn of Doan's Kidney Pills and I procured a supply. They greatly relieved him and toned up his general health."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

ENLARGES VARIETY STORE

Owing to an increase in his shoe business, W. C. Liebenstein has enlarged the shelf room in the Variety Store by removing the partition in the rear of the building. He will leave in about one week for Chicago to purchase a line of goods for the holiday trade.

FLASHES FROM THE HEADLIGHT

BITS OF NEWS PERTAINING TO THE SOO AND NORTHWESTERN RAILROADS

The Southern Pacific railroad has put into service the first "truck counter car." Its invention seems to answer a demand for cheaper food than is served in the dining cars dinners. A real lunch counter runs the length of the car and there are stools in front so that people who prefer to take their meals in this fashion will be as well accommodated as at a favorite counter at home.

Three and one-half per cent semi-annual dividends were declared at the annual meeting of the Soo Line railway at Minneapolis making the annual dividend seven per cent. Annual reports showed an increase of $4,000,000 in the gross receipts over 1911, gross receipts for 1912 being more than $17,000,000.

L. F. Malany pleaded guilty at Eau Claire to the embezzlement of $100 of the Soo line funds while ticket agent for the company at Ladysmith. The court gave Malany an opportunity to reimburse the company and if he does so the fact will have a bearing on the sentence imposed.

Officials of the Chicago & Northwestern railroad on the Lake Shore division are much concerned over the condition of the right-of-way on the line from Green Bay to Manitowoc.

The heavy storms have caused much damage to the line and it has been necessary to keep large crews of section hands at work on the road bed in order to avoid accidents.

The Northwestern system will suffer heavy losses as a result of the storms in this section of the state this year. Closely following upon the washout that occurred at Lyndhurst causing a wreck which took seven lives, the company was forced to abandon service entirely into Oconto due to a flood.

The tracks in Oconto and vicinity have now been repaired and are again reported in good condition, but it has only been done by the expenditure of a big sum of money.

A belt line around the east shore of Lake Winnebago will be the probable outcome of a visit to the proposed route by officials of the North-Western road and a corps of engineers. A party of 10 North-Western officials recently went over the route and conferred with property holders along the line which is intended to connect Peebles, a small station on the Sheboygan branch of the Northwestern and Forest Jet, which is located in the town of Brillion, Calumet county. The new road would be 25 miles in length and would provide the North-Western with a through line around the east shore of the lake from Fond du Lac to Appleton and Manitowoc. The territory the North-Western proposes to tap has no railroad or interurban facilities, the nearest line being the Milwaukee road, which runs from Forest Junction to Hilbert and thence to Sheboygan. Property holders along the east shore have given the North-Western every encouragement.

Officials of the Green Bay & Western, the Keweenaw, Green Bay & Western and the Ahnapee & Western railroads refuse to confirm or deny the rumor of the Soo line taking over those properties. A trip by special train over the systems by Soo officials gave rise to the rumor of the purchase.

BEACHY'S DARING FLIGHTS

Rhinelander people who witnessed the exhibition of "freak" flying by Lincoln Beachy in his bi-plane at the Antigo fair Thursday pronounce him a dare-devil in every sense of the term.

He performed many thrilling dives and dips which kept the spectators in a spell of apprehension. Beachy arose to height of over 5000 feet and also participated in an exciting race with motorcycle.

Another feature of the Antigo fair was Kryl's band which gave several pleasing concerts. It is probable that many more people from this city would have attended the Antigo fair had not the Rhinelander fair been held on the same dates.

TEACHES FORESTRY AT UNIVERSITY

F. B. MOODY GETS APPOINTMENT TO NEW WORK AT STATE INSTITUTION

Frank B. Moody, of this city, assistant state forester of the Wisconsin state forest service, has been appointed to take charge of the new work in forestry, recently authorized by the regents of the University of Wisconsin. He is a graduate of Bates College, Maine, and of the forestry school of the University of Michigan. Since his graduation from Michigan in 1906, he has had charge of the field work in Wisconsin under State Forester E. M. Griffith.

He has until recently been stationed at the state forest reserve near Trout Lake.

Mr. Moody's main work will be to organize a school for forest rangers, and to give the courses in the university on woodlot management. The forest rangers' course will consist of two sessions of six months each, extending over a period of two years. One-half of each session will be spent at the university during the winter, the other half in the field in the spring and early summer, where instruction will be given, by direct practical work on the state forest lands, so the students may acquire practical experience. It is expected that this new course will begin January 1, 1913.

IT'S THE BEST POLISH EVER USED

That's What Every One Says Who Tries

Black Silk Stove Polish

DO NOT imagine for a moment that all brands of stove polish are the same. Don't get the idea that to keep a nice glossy shine on your stove you must black it every few days. It's not a question of oft-repeated application.

It is a question of the stove polish to use.

Black Silk Stove Polish is so much better than other stove polishes that there is absolutely no comparison—it is a class all by itself.

It makes a brilliant glossy shine that don't rub or drag off. It anneals to the iron—becomes a part of the stove. It makes old stoves look like new and lasts far longer than any other shine.

Get a can and give it a trial. Try it on your parlor stove, your cook stove, or your gas range. If you do not find it the best stove polish you ever used, your dealer is authorized to refund your money. Black Silk Stove Polish has been made by the same formula and sold under one name for 20 years.

Here is what some of the ladies write us:

"I sent to you for a can of Black Silk Stove Polish and found it so much better than any I had ever used that I asked my hardware dealer to order a supply. He did so, and is now selling nearly everyone in the place your polish. I had no idea there could be such a difference in stove polishes."

"I was visiting friends and they used Black Silk Stove Polish on their stoves. It made the best shine I ever saw, and after blacking, the polish did not rub or drag off. It is way ahead of any polish I have ever used."

Ask Your Dealer. Costs no more than the ordinary and, to my knowledge, has the best. Made in liquid paste consistency.

Black Silk Stove Polish Works, Sterling, Ill.

Use Black Silk Air-Drying Iron Enamel for grates, registers, stove pipes, etc. Prevents rusting. Not affected by heat or cold. Produces a permanent glossy black surface. Can be brush or applying enamel, only 25 cents.

Use Black Silk Metal Polish for nickel, brass, silver, ware or toward. It has no equal for use on automobiles.

do as well next year, the fair association will surely have to enlarge the accommodations. Joe Kurtz of Monroe did well in bringing his fine new pure bred Guernsey sire. He had him in show shape, clean, well-trimmed and in condition to attract the eye of judge, exhibitors and the crowd. How much better to show an animal in this way than an animal in dirty clothes. Joe has set a good example which will be followed by all who are out for prizes. C. L. Puckett had his hooties in good shape too. Mr. Puckett is from Clearwater Lake. Horses, cattle, hogs and sheep should be dressed up for the show ring. Geo. Dawes of Tomahawk Lake came over from that place with a good exhibit. Herman Schoenbeck of Enterprise was perhaps the largest single exhibitor. He brought between 80 and 140 exhibits. David Kirk made five exhibits of potatoes and won four firsts. It is hoped that more farmers will follow the examples of these men next year. The farmers make the fair.

Ashland—

The plant of the Lake Superior Iron & Chemical Company has again commenced operations and will run for an indefinite period. The plant was closed two months while $50,000 worth of repairs and improvements were made. The company kept the entire crew at work making repairs and also employed a number of extra men. The plant runs twenty-four hours per day and is one of Ashland's biggest industries.

Washburn—

A deal is said to be pending whereby the Edward Hines Lumber Company will dispose of its holdings in Bayfield county, known as the White river tract of lands and consisting of 87,000 acres, to a syndicate of Chicago men. The rumor is that the consideration will be $500,000. The White river tract of lands lies in the middle and western part of Bayfield county, and is what is known as cut-over timber lands. Some very fine pieces of land are to be found in the tract and the greater part of the land is fit for cultivation. It is said that it is the intention of the purchasers to place the lands on the market for settlers.

Iron River—

On and after July 1, 1913, the saloon license fee in the town of Iron River will be $500 instead of $200 as heretofore. At a special election the question was voted on and 196 votes went to the polls. There was one blank ballot and of the 195 ballots marked 102 were for high license and 93 for low. Very little interest was taken in the election.

Marinette—

That this city is in urgent need of a new jail was demonstrated a few days ago when a man who had been arrested on a statutory charge made his escape from the jail by tearing up rotten boards of the floor and crawling out from under the building. When the escape took place it was not made known to the public but the story leaked out a short time later.

Grandon—

Thieves are again making raids on ginseng gardens in this locality. The farm of A. Hill in the Peshtigo valley was visited by three such thieves, but they were scared away by Mrs. Hill, who fired several shots at them. The next morning blood stains in the garden told her that one or possibly more of the trio had been hit. In the past farmers here have been heavy losers by ginseng thieves.

Ironwood—

Many of the mining and railroad men employed in the movement of ore from the mines now believe that the record shipments of 1910 will be exceeded this season. The outgo of ore from every district in the Lake Superior region is being maintained at a volume that gives indication of a movement for the season of better than 45,000,000 gross tons. Some of the vessel men express the belief that the record for the season will fall but little under 50,000,000 tons.

Park Falls—

Geo. H. Atwood announces that the big saw mill of the Atwood Lumber company in this city will soon resume operations. This is good news to the people of Park Falls as it was stated at the time the mill closed that it would not start up again for several years.

Florence—

John Harrington, a one legged tramp, who recently spent some time here, was arrested at Iron Mountain while trying to dispose of jewelry. Several diamonds and valuable pieces of jewelry were found in his possession. He is believed to be a noted jewelry thief wanted by the police of several big cities.

Minocqua—

The John Week lumber Co., of Steven Point, has purchased the logs owned by up river concerns which came down in the floods during the summer, and will drive them to their mills at the Point. The logs were recently loaded and it is found there is something like 2,00,000 feet between Rothschilds and this place.

Men's Ample Vocabulary.

It is claimed that the common hen is not far behind the turkey in her vocabulary. Furthermore, she is said to be a much more fluent "talker" than the rooster. Her cackle is used for three different purposes, and each cackle is different from the other cackles. One she uses when seeking a nest, or when calling for her mate; one when she is frightened; and another, of a triumphant sort, as she flies from or to the nest.

Work for Each.

No one of my fellows can do that special work for me which I have come into the world to do; he may do a higher work, but he cannot do my work. I cannot hand over my work to him, any more than I can hand over my responsibilities or my gifts. I must do . . . my work. I may do little or I may do much. That matters not. It must be my own work.—Ruskin.

Queer Sign Posts.

In the neighborhood of Warmbrunn, in the Silesian mountains, there are to be found some very curious signposts. One seen by a writer in the "Wide World Magazine" represents a farm laborer sharpening his scythe, on which is inscribed, in the old Silesian dialect, "To Glens Village, One Hour." The signpost is well carved and painted in natural colors, so that it appears very life-like. Another signpost in the same district represents a schoolboy carrying a slate bearing the name of the nearest village, toward which the boy is pointing.

Poverty may not be a crime, but it carries the penalty of hard labor.

Ancient Game Is Chess.

It is impossible to state just when and where chess was born. Back we may go in the ages, but we still find it existing. We see it painted on Egyptian vases, and we find it in the Chinese Books of Wisdom. It has been ascribed to all kinds of birthplaces, its creator having been at times a man, at times a god. Nothing positive is known about it, yet the greatest probabilities seem to point to its having come from the east.

Make a Lasting Epitaph.

Live for something. Do good, and leave behind you a monument of virtue that the storm of time can never destroy. Write your name, in kindness, love and mercy, on the hearts of husbands you come in contact with year by year; you will never be forgotten. No, your name, your deeds, will be as legible on the hearts you leave behind as the stars on the brow of evening. Good deeds will shine as the stars.—Chalmers.

Love at First Sight.

Think of it! "No such thing as love at first sight!" Why, the idea is preposterous! Every man who was once a boy, and every woman who was once a girl, can testify by personal experience that there is such a thing as love at first sight, and even the recollection of it causes the oldest hearts to flutter again. Every writer of novels and every reader of them can add to the testimony of love at first sight.—Pittsburg Chronicle Telegraph.
